Web – Amy Ball –The TTE PTO website is ready to launch on Friday 11/8. timbertrailparents.org. An email will be sent out with a reminder to parents that they will need to re-register on the new site.

Treasurer – Amy Griffin – The budget is posted on the website. Current balance is $32k. New classroom microphone charges will be hitting shortly. Handbid check should arrive this week from MAT.

King Soopers Card - The new contest for the classroom that has the most parents signed up for the King Soopers Card is still running. The winning class will receive a pizza party. You must email a screen shot of your account (with kid's names), even if you are currently signed up. Please see the flyer in Thursdays folder for more information. We have seen an increase in families registering. $3K was raised last quarter.

Volunteers – Philanthropy and Community events positions are open. We will not hold a training or a sign-up for help with the library for now. We will have parents help when available.

Battle of the Books – Battle of the Books is running well.

Red Envelope – Andrea Lamb – Since the website is new and not set-up to collect this type of information, we will be requiring forms to be handwritten. This will require more volunteers to administer the program. More information on Red Envelope will go home in this week's Thursday folders. Collection will begin next week.

Staff Appreciation – Lindsey Gertz – Conference week begins this week. We will be providing a snack bar in the lounge. Thank you to those who have volunteered and donated. Kindie parents, please see the sign-up for Friday desserts.

Room Parents – Winter party is up next and dates will be determined by individual teachers.

Spirit Wear – The corrected long sleeve shirts are in. There are extra shirts and stickers available at the front desk if interested in purchasing. Shirts are $12 and stickers are $2.

K-4 Classbook – 5% discount if purchased through November.
